Made Up With Danny Volk

Spanning seven seasons, Made-Up with Danny Volk is a performance and video series taking the form of an interview/talk show. The host, Danny Volk, interviews artists about their life and work while the artists use everyday cosmetics to paint his face into a temporary work of art. The project exists as a promotional platform with an interest in exploring power, intimacy, and the dynamics of interpersonal situations.

Screen Share Video Gallery is showing Seasons 1-4 and Season 7, during this month-long program. Seasons 5 & 6 were staged as live performances and are, therefore, not included.

Screen Share Video Gallery is a venue for screen-based media at the David and Reva Logan Center for the Arts, designed as a way to showcase student work made in various production courses in DoVA, including Video, Animation and On Time & Space. This space also hosts curatorial projects by students, alumni and guests from various Chicago art organizations. Located in the reception area outside of the Film and Video Screening Room (on the second floor of the Logan Center), Screen Share functions as a video lounge, showcasing programs of video, animation and new media on a rotating schedule.
