“Some interaction with public art can actually make you think differently about where you are, even about who you are … and that feeling doesn’t go away.”

—Bill Brown, Senior Advisor to the Provost for Arts
Public Art fascinates, perplexes, and challenges. It turns spaces into places, creating countless moments for spontaneous community building and conversation.

For more information about the public art on campus, visit publicart.uchicago.edu.

Produced by the Smart Museum of Art in collaboration with the Office of Civic Engagement.